“ I live behind Terry, one day while working in my yard I hear...pssst...hello....hi...I look up and walk to the back fence and she says...I just want to introduce myself, I see you working so hard all the time. Neighbors are not what they used to be but I could tell she was! She would call and say...go to the fence I have some bread for you and I would share with my grandchildren. The last bag we took to Rocky Mountain National Park and made "pudgy pies". I will think of her every time I look to the back fence. My sympathy and thoughts are with you.

“ Very sorry and sad for you who loved Terry, and for us “work family”. We worked (and laughed and cried and helped each other) for over 25 years.

We went to Alan Jackson concerts, sometimes with her mom. She was a wonderful cook; I still use her beef stew recipe! So happy we reconnected at the monthly retirement lunches. She looked so good. We talked and joked and laughed at all the years that had gone by. She was a lovely lady who loved her “real” family, and helped her “work” family in countless ways.
