

Terry Wayne Bye

January 24, 2014

Bye, Terry Wayne age 89, was born April 25th, 1924 in Yankton, South Dakota. He passed away peacefully on January 24th, 2014 in Marietta, Georgia. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather and friend to all. He is survived by his wife of over 66 years, Fern Long Bye; son, Bill (Denise) of Portage, MI; daughter, Linda (Jim) Mason of Marietta, Georgia; 5 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Terry was a South Dakota native and longtime resident of Edina, Minnesota. He and Fern were members of Mt. Olivit Lutheran Church. Terry was a decorated WWII Army veteran. He participated in the D-Day Allied Normandy invasion, and was wounded in the Battle of the Bulge. Terry retired from Texaco Oil Company after 42 years of service. He attained numerous sales and management promotions during his tenure and traveled throughout the Dakotas and Minnesota. Terry cherished his family and friends and loved his country and fellow veterans. A celebration of his life will be held in the Minneapolis area at a later date, with interment to follow at Fort Snelling. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
