“ I remember how active she was in Ellendale. We helped her assemble the dealt hands of playing cards for her rounds of Bridge. I think that's what she played. She was the treasurer at the Methodist/Presbyterian church. Some times she was also the cat sitter for the Pastor's cat. She belonged to many organizations. And although we were relentless in asking her the secret name of one of the organizations, she never told us.

She always made sure there were homemade caramel rolls, brownies, and chocolate chip cookies on hand when we came to visit. She still makes the best potato salad I've ever tasted.

She let Emily play with anything she wanted in her home. Jewelry, shoes, hats, pots and pans. Nothing was off limits.

She was a very special person. I will miss her.

“ My mom, Clarice, was at the same place as your mom. I visited often and enjoyed seeing your mom in the halls, always had a smile on her face. I liked to see how many of them would take care of her to cheer her and watch over her. She made many friends that were living there. So sad to hear of her passing, my deepest sympathies.
