“ My Great Grandma could always make me smile even when i was sad. I remember on time taking pictures on Halloween at her house.

“ Grandma was the best. And I mean every part of that. She had this vibe when you were around her. She was giving, loving, caring, thoughtful, funny, and very comforting! I remember watching movies in her living room, doing puzzles on the floor and I always loved the yellow quilt she kept upstairs in her sewing room! I already miss those days and wish I could go back to feel those feelings again. Memories are there because at least they happened. I love you Grandma. Miss you!! -Shannie
