Theodore Louis Brown (Ted) was born on September 17, 1942, to Darold and Norma Brown in Council Bluffs, Iowa. He graduated from Abraham Lincoln High School and went to the University of Nebraska in Omaha. He married Judy Hellbusch April 21, 1963, and they were happily married for 60 years. Ted and Judy had three children, Steven, Jennifer, and Mark. Ted has one granddaughter Rosalyn by Mark. Theodore is preceded in death by his parents Darold and Norma Brown and brother Bill and sister-in-law Janis. Theodore is survived by his wife Judy, children Steven, Jennifer, and Mark. He is also survived by his granddaughter Rosalyn, sister Rebekah Brown, nieces, nephews and grandniece and grandnephews. Throughout the years Ted loved his job and worked for various companies in the architectural precast concrete business in the Midwest doing sales, estimating, and drafting for over 50 years. He had his own company for several years and later worked as a consultant for different companies. He did quite a bit of traveling for his work, traveling all over the Midwest and Texas and he took the family with him as much as he could. He loved spending time with Judy and his family. He also enjoyed being involved in Men's bible study that he hosted in his home for quite a few years and participating in other prayer meetings and zoom church meetings.

Ted served in the Army National Guard from 1966 to 1972. He loved his family, friends and our church family who have been so supportive by their prayers and helping hands throughout his long battle with health issues. He loved talking with people, sharing his ideas, jokes, stories on the phone, e-mail, and social media. He loved Jesus Christ, was a believer in Christ and loved sharing his faith with others. In recent years he was mostly homebound and enjoyed spending time on his computer and writing. He wrote one fictional book that he published, he had almost finished his second book and had started writing an autobiography about his life. He went to be with the Lord Monday, October 30, 2023, and is rejoicing in heaven.
