“ Dear Dean, Andrea, and Panos and families, I'm very sorry for your loss of your father, and hope that your memories of him make this time easier for you. Father Ted made a very positive impact on many peoples' lives, including mine. I very much enjoyed our visits in recent years, and will always have great memories of both your dad and mom and our time together at All Saints Greek Orthodox Church in Peoria, IL as well as in Minneapolis. May His Memory Be Eternal!

Dear Dean, Andrea Panos n families, with sadness i just heard of your beloved fathers passing. As a beloved cousin of Bobby Vakos, who loved him n the church especially singing together with great voices. I pray they are singing praises together. We were blessed to have Father Ted officiated at our children weddings, n share the joy of our early years in Chicago together with many special visits with presvetera N Father. We loved them n beautiful family. May his memory be eternal.
