“ Tom Cassidy, always the gentlemen, always a good word about everyone, always there to help. Always current on new books, movies, actors, cars, planes, iphone, kindle, itunes or whatever. Once you met him you couldn't forget him. His Irish smile and laugh were infectious. He had friends everywhere and they were all special to him. Brother John and sister Pat and all his nieces and nephews my condolences. I will miss him always. Phil Smith - STMA '52

“ I knew Tom through mutual friends of ours. We attended many productions together at the Bloomington Civic Theatre. He loved to patronize the arts and was quite knowledgeable about them. I'll always remember his kind laugh, gentle nature, and love of life. He was a man who gave back to the community and derived joy from doing so. My deepest sympathies to his family, and dear friends Kathy, Tom and Val.

“ Tom was a quiet, gentle and humble man, with always a ready smile and a kind greeting. He was proud of his "Irish Heritage" and the twinkle in his eyes let one know there was a bit of a leprechaun inside him. Hoist a glass to Tom's memory. Toast a "Life Well Lived".
