Tom pranked me a number of times over the 45 years I knew him. I only got him once and that was by accident. On a BWCA trip, I brought the coffee, not realizing I was supposed to run the beans through the grinder at the grocery store. Tom, who loved his coffee, swore at me as he crushed each individual bean with his fishing pliers. I'll miss you Tom and all the good times.

“ I had the pleasure (a "dubious pleasure", as Tom probably would have said) of working across from Tom for several years at the Met Council in the early 2000s. I could always count on Tom for good conversation, humor, and a general positive presence. Thank you, my friend.

Tom managed this motley crew of duffers for many years. There are a few who are not in the photo including his golf partner Tim Keegan. I don't think he lost any/much hair over the task. We all greatly enjoyed being in his company.
Sincerely, Craig Christenson

We started a group of high school friends after our 50 th reunion. Unfortunately, Tom couldn't attend much on Thursday. Great memories from junior and senior high. Donated to Patrick Henry Foundation in his memory- Bob Wetherille
