““That is one fine human being” is what comes to my mind, and always has, when I think about Tom. During our years of friendship, I came to know and value Tom as someone who loved his family and friends and treated them the way we'd all like to be treated. When he talked about work, I thought how lucky it would be to have Tom as your boss. Aside from all that, he was so much fun! For a time Tom lived just down the alley from me. We shared many great times on our bikes, at concerts and local establishments. I always think of him when I walk by that house. I will miss Tom and his lively humor. My heart goes out to his family and friends on their loss. Cyndy Hanson

“ I knew Tom and took several trips with him to the east and west coast and the BWCA. He was always a good guy, and he cared for others with compassion and treated all with unusual civility. Several years ago he told he met a girl and said she was a 'keeper'.. Tom was the best of 'Minnesota-nice' through and through.
