“ Tom is my brother-in-law, John's, brother, a kind soul and one that I always found easy to talk to. I will miss him at our Christmas gatherings and wish that I had more time with him. He had a passion for music and loved playing in his band. I know his family loves him so much and he will be missed greatly by everyone who knew him.

“ I first met Tom when he started working for my husband about 15 years ago. His smile and his laugh could light up a room. My world is a few degrees dimmer these days. Tom's humor and story-telling skills never failed to enchant me. So many memories; Late night shopping at Walgreens to buy gag gifts for his coworkers. A morning "surprise" on the rug when he accidentally trapped our cat Soot in the guest room with him overnight. How happy it made me that Tom felt so comfortable in our home that he would sing in the shower each morning. So many memories. I will cherish each and every one. My heart goes out to Tom's family and friends. I hope that each of you have a lifetime of memories to cherish also.

“ I only knew Tom for a few months, working in the same office, but it didn't take long to grow fond of his wit and his genuinely sweet demeanor. I will miss the opportunity of getting to know him better, but know that he is in an amazing place with God. My deepest sympathies to his family and to my co-workers who've known him for years and loved him as a true friend. In peace,
