“ *I am saddened to hear of the passing of a dear friend . Tom was instrumental in requesting that I look into a job opportunity in which I did and and changed my life forever.
His interest, kindness and professionalism was exceptional and I shall always cherish his friendship through the years. I am sure he is busy negotiating his next journey to help make a difference.
My thought and prayers go out to his family and close friends
Sending love and light and inner peace to each of you.
