“ Whenever there was a bowling tournament in the metro area that brought his cousins Eddie Johnson (my dad) and Gordy Johnson to town, Tommy always showed up at the alley to watch them bowl their best. Though he wasn't a man of many words, Tommy really seemed to enjoy being a part of those events. He was devoted to his parents, too, making sure they could stay in their home as they aged. He was a good man. May he rest in peace.
