“ I was blessed to be the hospice nurse for Tom! I smiled the second I saw him thru his door sitting in his recliner smoking his cigar. We took turns making each other laugh and I just enjoyed how challenging he could be. I think I ordered oxygen for him 3 times before he actually let the delivery man leave it at the house. Stubborn yet sweet and hilarious is how I'd describe Tom and he was so lucky to have Karen because she took such awesome care of him. I'm happy he got his wings and I won't ever forget him.

“ Tom spent a lot of his time in the Aberdeen SD area. He owned 'The Hole In The Wall' and 'The 1950s Cafe', he also worked for Super 8 as a land developer and traveled across the United States. After retiring, he spent a lot of time hunting and fishing. He hunted in the Houghton area and had a house in Akaska to be close to the River so he could enjoy his other passion, fishing. He had many friends and a few close friends in each area.

Tom sat in his chair with certain things that he could see: American flag (lighted), wind chime with solar lighted ball, bunny from the table in Akaska, electronic picture frame showing friends, the boat, fish, Akaska and Houghton area/houses, driveway, the farckle cup, and many more images.

“Life is not a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in a pretty and well-preserved body. But rather, to skid in sideways, thoroughly used up and totally worn out; a drink in one hand and a cigar in the other, and loudly shouting WOW what a ride.”

For those who know the joke, I was told a football would not be appropriate.
