

Thomas John Morris, Jr.

April 13, 1933 - December 29, 2018

Passed away on December 29

Dad passed away unexpectedly as the sun set over the river on December 29. His beloved family was by his side, holding his hand as he ended his journey on Earth to join mom in God's paradise. It was time for him to go and though there were still more trips to make, meals to enjoy and conversations to be held, we tearfully said our goodbyes. We can only imagine how joyous he is to be at peace and out of pain with mom again by his side.

Tom was preceded in death by his beloved Rosemary.

He leaves behind the other great loves of his life - his daughters, Julia Morris, Barbara (Scott) Fischer, Deborah Morris, Patricia (Brandon) Falk, and Melissa Morris, as well as eleven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Tom brought joy and hope to everyone he met and will be deeply missed.

Mass of Christian Burial 11AM Tuesday, January 8, 2018 (visitation 10-11AM) at St. Odilia Catholic Church, 3495 North Victoria Street, Shoreview. Private interment at Resurrection Cemetery, Mendota Heights immediately following service.

Memorials can be given in his name to Wounded Warriors.

“ We had the good fortune of being neighbors to Tom the past few years. Tom was a delightful man who was full of faith, joy, and happiness with a deep love for his family and his country. He was a tough-minded optimist who dug deeply to find the good in every day, in every person, and in every situation. He was made from good, old fashioned stock - a true representation of honesty and integrity to his fellow man. With a boisterous laugh and contagious smile, he was a warm and fuzzy kind of guy who left the world a little sunnier because of the impact his life had upon it. It is with love and gratitude for the life of this extraordinary man that my family and I offer our sincerest condolences to the entire Morris family. We are sorry for your loss.
