“ *I knew Tom when we were kids when our dads, both pilots for North Central Airlines became friends. Our moms became life long friends as well. I got to know Tom well when we were younger because we sat together in classes/school having last names beginning with Ni. Tom was one of the nicest people one would ever meet! We could always pick up our conversations as if no time had ever gone by. He loved people and he was so lovable!
My husband Ron & I are deeply sorry!

“ I just heard this tragic news last night. My heart goes out to his younger brother, John. Tom was influential and very gracious to me as a young pilot in my early twenties right out of college. He invited me over to his place to discuss aviation and really encouraged me in the pursuit. 30 plus yrs later I'm stilling flying and doing what he also loved. I am so sorry.

Tom and I grew up together. He was really such a gentle guy very calm and patient. I got to see him along with Bob and Diane. I pretty much liked his whole family. To his family, you have my deepest sympathy
