“ Tommy was the kindest person I met during my time working behind the scenes in wrestling. I never forgot his goodness and he stayed in my thoughts since then. I only found out about his passing a couple weeks ago and it broke my heart. He always spoke truth and behind the smile I say the hurt he carried from a toxic industry. He was one of the greatest people I ever met. I will miss him always.

It borders on disrespect that there isn't a million comments of sympathy and memories posted on here, but I do want to post my expression of the deepest to Tom's family, and post one of my memories of Tom Zenk - i believe from approx. 1986 or 1987, the wwf aired their "Slammy's" and Jimmy Hart was singing his song "girls in cars" when right in the middle of his song, Tom Zenk and Rick Martel (Strikeforce) road out on the stage on dirtbikes - the crowd went wild.... giving the 2 stars the love and admiration that they deserved. Rest in peace, I didn't forget you then, and I won't forget you now!

RIP Tom 🙏, I always enjoyed your WCW run especially when you had the TV championship. I had the honor of seeing you wrestle for WCW in The Meadowlands. One of the best ever! Condolences to all his friends and family
