

Timothy Campbell Lenox

April 25, 1948 - April 16, 2020

Lenox, Timothy Campbell The son of Robert C. and Mary Jane Lenox, Tim grew up in the Kenwood neighborhood of Minneapolis where he met many of his life long friends. Tim graduated from West High School and went on to a lifelong career in the hearing aid industry, co-founding Hearing Services International. A lover of music and talented guitarist, Tim lived a life of exuberance; quick to strike up a conversation, offer a story or joke, or a tidbit of song. Silence was not his friend, and a trip to the hardware store was never less than an hour as a new friend was made and a story shared. We Remember his humor and warmth. Tim is survived by Madeline, his wife of over 50 years; daughter, Brianna; son, Christopher; grandchildren, Gaia and Atiicus; and brother, Robert K. In lieu of flowers please make a donation to Schmitt music therapy or the Angel Foundation.

“ I just heard about the passing of Tim today. Lynn, my heart goes out to you and the family. I enjoyed spending time with the guy. I didn't know that his middle name was Cambell, I thought the C. Was for crazy. I submitted a couple of photo's from back in the day. He enjoyed life and he will not be forgotten.
