“ he never the got the chance to meet his grand kids an see them grow up.. but the only memory I have of him was when I was five an we were watching Christmas movies together... that was the last an final time I ever I saw him... an the last time I ever talk to him I was either 10 or 12 an he was telling me how much he loved me an that he wanted to see me an spend time with but never did... when I went to call him the next day he changed his number an I never talked to him again.... grandma ann would tell me that he wanted to talk to me but I wasn't ready to see him or even talk to him... he never had the chance to get to me or my brother or even our kids...

“ Preserve the memory for future generations, what if future generations already exist? There are 6 grand-kids that I'm not sure he knew about. One of them being his grandfathers name sake Timothy Manuel Perez V. Then came Isiah, Joey, Anjolina, Evelyn and Essme. These are the kids responsible for the memory.. and they have none. The visitation and burial will be there first and last. I'm sure they will pass that along when their kids ask about there grandpa. No pictures, no stories, just a brief sentence for the future generations. ~ Jessica Perez
