Today it felt like my life flashed in front of me. Going back to Robbinsdale and the two neighbors who I grew up with. Tim Hawkins and Jan Gilman. Your wedding was the first wedding I ever attended and you both look like movie stars. Like I said you were the Barbie and Ken of the neighborhood with beauty and very nice personalities. It was very nice to hear the people speak at the service today about how Tim kept all his clients secrets that were shared over the years. He died too young. I got to see him and Jan at the Robbinsdale all class reunion and that was nice to be able to speak with him then. I guess none of us really know the impact people play our lives and how we recall them. Jan our deepest sympathy. The Rau Family
