“ Todd was just a great guy. We met when his sleep lab hired me for a position on his shift. He was an ideal coworker and our shift worked as a team. We had the same philosophy: making the patient relaxed and comfortable was half the job. Psychology. We would both get angry if we couldn't fix the patient! Todd was a true friend and confidant. A brother. His optimism was perpetual, his great humor everpresent, his knowledge incredible. Name the field: history, literature, philosophy, theology, music, geography, and any of the sciences. He was the soul of wit and our conversation at work would often result in the twelve hours seeming more like six! He was generous and thoughtful. The last few years has seen my health decline a bit and Todd provoked me to join Planet Fitness. Most endearing of all was his devotion to Jackie, Grant, and Reed. He was always telling me of their latest accomplishments and of all the cool and interesting things he had planned. We had a gift that we would often make each other laugh to the point of tears. I strained my stomach muscles many times!
You rarely see so many admirable qualities in one person.
RIP Amigo
See you in heaven
Thank you Jesus!
