

Tommy Bounheuang Thammat

May 26, 1982 - June 6, 2026

It is with profound sadness that we announce the unexpected passing of our beloved Tommy Bounheuang Thammat on June 6, 2026, at the age of 44.

Born on May 26, 1982, Tommy lived a life defined by generosity, humor, intelligence, and an unwavering devotion to the people he loved. He had a remarkable gift for making others feel seen, heard, and valued. When Tommy greeted someone, he did so with genuine enthusiasm and warmth, making them feel important and welcomed. Whether you were a lifelong friend or someone he had just met, Tommy had a way of making you feel like you mattered. People naturally gravitated toward him because they knew they would be met with kindness, interest, and a sincere desire to connect.

When Tommy was around, you knew you could count on him. Whether you needed a helping hand, advice, a home-cooked meal, or help solving a problem, Tommy would show up without hesitation. His generosity extended far beyond what he did for others. It was reflected in how he made people feel.

A true technology enthusiast, Tommy loved all things tech and was often the person family and friends turned to when something needed fixing. No challenge was too complicated, and no problem seemed beyond his ability to solve. His brilliant mind, curiosity, and knack for troubleshooting made him the go-to person for everything from computers and gadgets to trip planning, scheduling, and life's everyday puzzles.

Tommy also expressed his love through food. He loved to cook and found joy in bringing people together around a meal. He cared for others in both big and small ways, making sure everyone was fed, comfortable, and taken care of. For Tommy, cooking was never just about food. It was one of the many ways he showed love. His attention to detail was legendary, especially when it came to labeling things. If something belonged somewhere, Tommy made sure it had a label. It became one of the many endearing traits that made him uniquely Tommy and often brought smiles to those who knew him best.

More than anything, Tommy was devoted to his family. He lovingly cared for his parents, Bounheuang and Padith Thamat, serving as their primary caregiver and ensuring they always had the support, attention, and care they needed. His selflessness and dedication reflected the depth of his love and the strength of his character.

Tommy taught those around him the importance of making time for people. No matter how busy life became, he believed in showing up for others. He demonstrated every day that love is expressed through time, attention, generosity, and kindness. He gave freely of himself and asked for little in return.

He is survived by his loving parents, Bounheuang and Padith Thamat of Brooklyn Park, Minnesota; his sister, Victoria Thamat of Chicago, Illinois; his brother, Tim Thamat of Brooklyn Park, Minnesota; a beloved niece and five nephews. He also leaves behind many extended family members and friends whose lives were enriched by his friendship, humor, generosity, and unwavering presence.

Tommy will be remembered for his infectious smile, quick wit, brilliant mind, generous heart, and extraordinary ability to make people feel seen, heard, and loved. His absence leaves an immeasurable void, but his legacy lives on in the countless lives he touched, the meals he shared, the problems he solved, and the love he gave so freely.

Though our hearts are broken, we find comfort in knowing that Tommy's life was one of purpose, kindness, and devotion. We will miss him deeply and carry his memory with us always.
