Tribute Wall

“ My late parents and I lived across the street from the Craven family in Costa Mesa, CA, in the early 1960's. I am sorry to read of Mrs. Craven's passing. As a kid, I probably "talked her ear off" as I loved visiting with the adult neighbors, probably a lot more than I enjoyed spending time with kids of my own age. Mrs. Craven was always very kind to me. It was good that she was blessed with such a long life for her kindness. Sincerely, George Hewett

Of course I meant to say that Mrs. Craven was a kind person in general, and not that she was kind only to me.
