“ She was like a second grandmother for me. I will forever cherish our shared birthday celebrations, lengthy visits and phone calls. Val was as sweet as her favorite Lindt chocolate, which I was always sure to bring her.

“ Our Aunt Val would light up a room with her smile, and her fashionable wardrobe always brought the looks. She was so easy to be around, with her calming voice, kindheartedness, and sincere personality. I know she would have made a great teacher! I also remember the Christmas cards she would send that displayed her beautiful handwriting. Perfection at its best! She will be missed by many.

“ Growing up, I remember my Aunt Vals as a sweet, positive minded and beautiful person inside and out! She always laughed so genuinely at the things that us kids would do or when my dad would make a joke. She lit up the room with her smile and also had incredibly good taste in fashion and style. More than once I found myself asking her where she found her beautiful sweater or necklace. She was always put-together in such a classy and gorgeous way. She brought so much positivity and grace to all of our family gatherings and my memories of her lovely soul will live on forever in my mind. ❤️

“ Our dear Aunt Valerie, much-loved by me and my siblings. She was one-of-a-kind, intelligent, funny, stylish and hospitable to all who crossed her path. Her amazing hand knits are passed to new generations, and the long scarf she made me continues to keep out the Minnesota cold! I will so miss her dry and clever sense of humor, her love of cuisines, discussing the world news (from her reading the paper cover-to-cover every day). and hearing all of her family and friends. She was such an example of steadfast faithfulness to her Church and to each whom she loved until her last days. Quite something to have experienced. There are many stories from her life to reflect on and be thankful to have heard. We loved you Aunt Val!
+Eternal Rest grant her O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon her.

“ Correction to my previous Memory: Quoted my daughter-in-law as saying now Val is "dancing with Mary"....meant "dancing with Larry" (but I am sure Mary is on the sidelines, cheering!):-)

“ My deepest sympathy to Val's family: Teri, Wally, her grandchildren, great grandchildren, nephew Kent, her "family" at Little Sisters and all others who loved her.

Val and her husband, Larry, were dear friends to me and my family for over 50 years! Wow!

I am so grateful for our long, enduring friendship and will miss her greatly!

The last five years, especially with COVID and without Larry , were very difficult for Val, but she remained as upbeat & hopeful as possible, even when in pain & uncomfortable. She was so appreciative to her family & the staff at Little Sisters of the Poor and all they did to keep her comfortable and connected to the outside world.

It was a joy to visit her, even online or at the window, as she delighted in telling her stories and hearing ours!

Val was my spiritual godmother and partner in prayer. Her faith was unwavering and inspired mine! Now, as my daughter-in-law said, she's "dancing with Mary!" I am happy for her but have a hole in my own heart. I miss my friend Val and am thankful to God for her life and how she and her loved ones were part of mine. Love, Jan
