

Valorie Holliday

February 13, 1957 - July 14, 2024

Valerie Lynette Holliday, affectionately known as Ms. Val, peacefully passed away on July 14, 2024, in Minneapolis, Minnesota at age of 67 Born in Gary, Indiana. She was a woman who dedicated her life through the Grace of God to care for her "gifted" autistic son, Nicholas Hord.

She was married in 1980 to Frank Hord and they were married for 20 years. Nicholas Hord was born in September 1984. After their separation she moved to Minnesota to seek a better life for her and her son.

In Minnesota, Ms. Val was recognized for her spirited customer relations skills in the areas of food and customer service management. She was loved and appreciated by her coworkers. However, her Faith and love of her son built a relationship that would provide security for her son's future. She was a mother, father, best friend, and teacher. Nicholas often referred to his mother as his "mentor".

As we celebrate her homegoing, friends, family and coworkers will remember her by the crackling laughter, brutal honesty, wit, and loving heart.

The arrangements for Ms. Val are being handled by Washburn-McReavy Funeral Home in Minneapolis, MN
