

Varjo Jurisoo

October 8, 2016

Jurisoo, Varjo 91, of Coon Rapids, MN was born in Vasalem, Estonia. Preceded in death by his wife: Margaret Jurisoo (nee Hunt); parents: Jüri Jürisson Jürisoo and Helmi Jürisoo (nee Adamson); and sibling: Uno Jürisoo. He is survived by his sons: David (Linda), John (Pandora), grandson Jacob; and many other close relatives and friends. Varjo passed away peacefully surrounded by family on October 8, 2016 after a long struggle with Cancer. Varjo grew up in Estonia, went on to fight in WWII, and eventually escaped Russian persecution in occupied Estonia by making his way to the United States. He gained US citizenship, served in the US Army, and married his bride Margaret on May 15, 1960. They raised their two boys in Brookfield, IL and then Coon Rapids, MN. Varjo and Marge spent their winter retirement years traveling in an RV across the country and visiting their son in California. They both donated many hours to the Good Sam RV Club. He was a skilled trucking firm auditor, good father, jovial soul, and a truly dedicated husband until his wife's death in 2013.
