

Vay Stonebraker

November 29, 2010

Stonebraker, Vay Age 91, passed away November 24, 2010 due to recent health complications. He was born December 7, 1918 to Harriet Vay and Harold Stonebraker. He was raised in Rochester, New York with his brother, Dan Stonebraker and his sister, Martha Stonebraker Ely. Vay was loved and admired by many. He was a wonderful man, husband, father, grandfather, & great-grand- father. Vay Spent most of his adult life in Northbrook, IL. He had a long and successful career in sales and management with Dubois Chemical Company. He also enjoyed a long and successful retirement. He loved all aspects of business, investments and golf. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Jean Lady Stonebraker. He is survived by their two daughters, Marcia Park Brabender and husband Thomas Brabender, Sally Rees, and husband Richard Rees; grandchildren, Nicole Jean Rees Nicolino & husband Christopher Nicolino, Taylor Vay Rees, and Joshua William Park and his wife Amber Ward Park; great- grandchild, Tyler Christopher Nicolino. Vay is survived by his current wife, Helen Doelz Stonebraker; her son, Jack Williams and wife Jane Sundquist Williams; their two sons, John Williams and wife Amy Hamann, son, David Williams, and wife Kathy Maas Williams. His zest for life will remain an inspiration to all who knew him and shared his company. He will be missed by many. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to your local Alzheimer's Association or your favorite charity. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, December 1st, 1:00 P.M. with visitation beginning at 12:00 Noon at: Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996 West 50th St. & Hwy 100