

Vera Durand

June 12, 2015

Durand, Vera a 50 year resident of St. Anthony Village, passed away peacefully last week. She entered this world on June 12, 1923 and amazingly left it that same date 92 years later, June 12, 2015. From her 100% Slovak heritage to her deep Catholic faith, Vera was a woman who embodied the attributes of a great wife and mother, very kind and caring of others. She was a devoted loving wife to her husband of 60 years, Douglas Durand who preceded her in death, She is survived by daughter, Kathy and son, Paul; daughter-in-law, Ruth; 3 grandsons, Adam (Stacy), Erik (Libby) and Michael Durand; and great-grandmother to baby Hans; sisters, Margie Schurstein and Theresa Millford; brother, Dr. Paul Pribula; brother-in-law, Roger Durand and many nieces and nephews. Vera was a huge sports fan. She loved her Twins, Vikings, Timberwolves and Gophers. When we think of Vera we will remember her by certain phrases, "I Love You" and "God Bless You". Vera appreciated what she had and ended each day in a prayer of thanks. A special thank you to Dr. Martina Hartmark and her staff at Health Partners Como Clinic for many years of exceptional care. Also a big thank you to Health Partners Hospice Team 5.
