

Vera Lundeen

May 3, 2012

Lundeen, Vera L. age 91 passed away peacefully at Anoka Care Center on April 30, 2012. Vera was born on April 14, 1921 and spent her girlhood on the farm in Jessie, North Dakota and as a teen moved to Minneapolis. She met her husband George (Bud) Lundeen soon after his return from his service in the Coast Guard during WWII. They married and settled in the Camden neighborhood where they raised their family. Vera will be remembered fondly as a person who loved to laugh and have fun. She will be missed dearly by her family. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lydia and Bernie Cunningham, her beloved husband George (Bud) who passed away on April 13, 1977, her infant daughter Rosemary, her siblings, Harold and Charlotte Cunningham who passed away as children in North Dakota, Peggy Roy and Harriet Campbell. Survived by her brothers, Jerry (Marge) and Darwin (Jan) Cunningham, and her sisters Millie Ferrara and Shirley (Jack) Hall. Also survived by her beloved children, Susan Lundeen Mathisen and her six sons, Jeff (Mary), Mark, George (Donna), Ronald (Celeste), Marty (Carolyn) and Karl (Kristine) Lundeen as well as her many grand- children and two great grandchildren; also sister-in-law, Grace Lundeen. The family will receive relatives and friends on Thursday, May 3 from 10-11 a.m. Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 11:00 a.m., all at Church of the Epiphany, 11001 Hanson Boulevard, Coon Rapids, Minnesota with lunch to follow. Private burial at Fort Snelling. Special and sincere thanks to all the wonderful caregivers at Anoka Care Center.
