“ I remember Vicki from all the Quota conferences and conventions we shared, from Australia to Minneapolis. She talked with pride about "her residents" at work and it was very evident that she enriched their lives and strengthened their spirits. She was so enthusiastic about the yearly Quota fashion show that Minneapolis does and the special projects that started alot of us Quotarians from other clubs saving our hotel soaps and shampoos for her. I will miss her bright smile, her quick wit, her twinkling eyes, her loving ways. My sympathy to her family who I am sure she is looking after from above.
