Vicki Lynn Vogt

(February 23, 1950 - January 12, 2026)

Vicki Lynn Vogt passed away peacefully after a long and courageous journey following a massive stroke in March 2025. She spent her final months in long-term care, where she faced each day with quiet strength and a deep, abiding faith.

Vicki grew up on a farm south of Fairmont, Minnesota, before her family moved to Granada, Minnesota during her junior year of high school, where she later graduated. Those early years shaped her resilience, strong work ethic, and deep love of family. Shortly after graduating, she met and married Robert Vogt, and together they began their life and family.

Life was not always easy, but Vicki had a rare gift for surviving hard seasons while making sure everyone around her was taken care of. She carried the weight of others quietly and faithfully, always placing family first.

Vicki loved being a mother and absolutely cherished being a grandmother. Nothing brought her more joy than the people she loved.

She is survived by her husband, Robert Vogt; her son, Robert Vogt, daughter-in-law Christine Vogt, and granddaughter Myah Vogt; her daughter, Jamie Berquist, son-in-law Kris Berquist, and grandchildren Kaylah Vogt and Kristian Berquist; and her siblings Charles "Chuck" Lohse (Mary), Pamela Gibbs, and James "Jimmy" Lohse (Shondra), along with many nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, January 17th at 1PM at Hope Fellowship (17261 St. Francis Blvd. NW, Ramsey). Interment Fort Snelling National Cemetery.

“ I will always remember when my mom and dad left me with my grandma and she would tell this story a hundred times and I never got sick of hearing it. She would tell me that she needed to watch me and she didn't know what to do with me. She would tell me that she took my toy car and she would say let's go play on the fuzzy wuzzy which is my head. I never got sick of hearing that story. It had been a story that have heard a hundred times and every time it reminded me how much my grandma loved me. She was always there in times when I was crushed and defeated to tell me that no matter what I will make it through and things will work out. Another memory when she lived in the apartment building is when I was younger every time I would go to see her and I would turn the corner in to the hallway she would always be st the end of the hallway smiling at me. Every time I counted in it and it was always something I looked forward to seeing. I will miss hearing her goofy laugh and her talking to strangers about random things in public. She is my one and only grandma and she will always be that light in the darkness when I had hard times and a person that I never doubted she loved me unconditionally with everything in her. Rest in peace grandma. It's not goodbye it is see you later :)
