Vickie was a passionate humanitarian. She sponsored many people, over many years, with their quest of recovery in the Alcoholics Anonymous program. She celebrated her 35 years of sobriety on December 28th of last year. She helped other cancer survivors with their struggles, and was committed to helping those with special needs. She was an avid reader, student, librarian, and yes, author, she wrote a book! She loved doing jigsaw puzzles, sudoku, and other brain teasers, she wasted none of the education she had acquired.
