“ I just stumbled upon this obituary, and I was so sorry to learn of Vince's passing. I love the photo you've posted of him by the way -- that smile and cheery optimism are so familiar -- 32 years after I last saw him. Vince worked at one of the Dubuque area colleges while I was at KDTH radio from 1976-83 and I can credit him for getting me interviews with such celebrities as Harry Chapin, Mercer Ellington and others who appeared on campus. (Vince even asked me to drive Harry Chapin from the Dbq. airport to his concert one year -- because Vince had an emergency and couldn't make it. So I owe Vince a lot, and have always considered him a mentor and friend.

I WOULD LIKE TO GET IN CONTACT WITH ONE OF HIS FAMILY MEMBERS because I have a 3 minute audio feature I recorded with Vince that I can send as an MP3. We recorded it when Vince played a policeman in the movie F.I.S.T. Please have someone contact me at bobsmithtalent@gmail.com -- My name is Robert Andrew Smith from Cedarburg WI, and I'm posting this on 9-22-2014.
Condolences to Vince's family.

“ Our condolences to Joanne and Family -

We first met Vince in 2000 during the Kam L. Wong family reunion in Deadwood, South Dakota. I will never forget the firm handshake, the booming voice, and the caring nature that Vince showed our extended family during the time we were in Deadwood.

Subsequent to my father's passing I know that Vince took the time to help my mother with the Kam L. Wong Memorial Scholarship and that he always took the time to talk with my mother on her visits to Deadwood, and that he always let her know that Kam was remembered in his heart and mind.

Thank you Vince for everything you did for our families, for the support you have given us over the many years, and for all the thoughts you shared with our families over those many years.

You will not be forgotten.

“ Dearest Joanne and Family,

We will always think of Vince fondly as one of the first people in the Black Hills to extend a welcome to Kam Leung in his pursuit of discovering his paternal ancestry in America. We will always be in gratitude for Vince's support of the Wong Family in our successful efforts to reconnect with Deadwood. May you rest in peace Vince.

“ Any time Vince Coyle's name was mentioned in the Sannito household my Dad, Tom Sannito, had a huge smile because he was most likely telling a funny story involving Vince. Vince kept my Dad laughing and smiling for many, many years of true friendship. I hope my Dad and Vince are joining up in heaven!

“ *Dear Coyle family,
My sincere condolences. As my sister said, our Dad, Tom Sannito, admired Vince very much. He will be missed in this life - hopefully, those two are reconnecting and reminiscing together. I wish you all peace as you mourn, remember, and honor Vince.*

“ *Mary and the entire Coyle family,
Although it has been many years since our paths have crossed I just wanted to send my most heartfelt sympathy to you and your dear family. I can still see your folks in my mind at the many Loras college basketball games I would attend as a child with my folks.
Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.*

God bless,
