“ We will forever have a memory of Vi in the sunroom at the Lake in Breezy Point. Every morning as we made coffee we could see her in her rocker, reading the paper or a book, from our kitchen window (to their sunroom window). When Vi and Charley left the Breezy Point area – a part of our hearts left with them. They were the best neighbors – and Charley was a fishing companion and special friend to Lee. Vi and Lynn shared many thoughts and discussions - as women often do when husbands are on the Lake. Our memories include discussing, planning and carrying out the many garage sales that we coordinated with Vi over the years. I think she loved the sales even more than we did! I remember her helping go through some antique items we had in prep for a sale. We also enjoyed sharing their company over food at home or going out to eat. Vi and her husband Charlie were the best of neighbors, and friends and we loved both of them dearly. Our sympathy to her family on her passing. May God bless their souls. In loving memory.
