

Virgil Kenneth Behounek

January 13, 2015

Behounek, Virgil Kenneth Age 91, passed away peacefully on January 13, 2015. Preceded in death by his wife of 61 years, Joyce Behounek; parents Louis and Julia Behounek; brothers Paul Behounek, Jerome Behounek, Donald Behounek; and sister Jeanne Uhlenhake. Survived by his children Teresa (Jan) Van Hauer, Pat (Wade Church) Behounek, Pam (Dave) Behounek-Olsen, Bruce (Kathleen) Behounek; grandchildren Erik (Hillary Sherman) Van Hauer, Kate (Kyle) Weis, Matthew, Hannah and Chloe Behounek; brother Dennis Behounek; and many nieces and nephews. He was a proud WWII veteran serving from 1943 to 1946, and led a fulfilling career with Cargill as a chemical engineer. He was a friend to many and noted for his quick wit, a twinkle in his eye, great smile and respect for others. Virgil enjoyed cross-country road trips with family, golfing, gardening and he was a superb handyman. He volunteered for Store-to-Door for years and was instrumental in rebuilding the sunken steamboat "Minnehaha" that now plies the waters of Lake Minnetonka.
