

Virginia Marie Johnson

December 6, 1940 - December 22, 2023

Johnson, Virginia M. (Etter) age, 83 of Bloomington, passed away surrounded by all of her loving family on December 22nd, 2023. She had been happily living in Montrose for the past 3 years, with her granddaughter, Kayton, her husband, Andrew, and their 4 beautiful children. She was preceded in death by her husband of 58 years, Jim, the love of her life! Also preceded by parents, Herb and Elinor Etter, and sister, Marietta Straus. Ginny will be remembered for her deep love of Faith, Family and Friends. Ginny selflessly devoted her life to her husband, Jim, and raising their three daughters, Sheila, Kathy and Amy. She was a wonderful friend who was loving, kind and the best listener ever! Many friends have gone before her, and some are still here to miss her. Her friendships were lifelong and meant the world to her. Ginny and Jim were members of Bloomington Covenant Church for 50 years. Survived by three of the luckiest daughters in the world: Sheila Johnson-Grushevski, Kathy (Daryl) Blohm, and Amy (Mike) Wald; eight grandchildren, Kayton (Andrew) Johannsen, Mick (Reidun) Wald, Cody (Jessica) Lillestol, Bryce (Savanna) Blohm, Mitch (Jess) Wald, Blake Blohm, McLain Blohm, and Carleigh Wald; 12 great-grandchildren, Siri, Oliver, Poppy and Lily Johannsen, Jackson and Colby Wald, Hunter and Asher Blohm, Archer and Lucy Lillestol, and Kacey and Kennedy Wald; three nephews, Jeff Nygren, Steve Nygren, and Dave (Kim) Nygren. Funeral Service Tuesday, January 9th, 2024 at Bloomington Covenant Church; 10150 Xerxes Avenue; Bloomington, MN. Service at 11:00 AM with visitation one hour prior to service. Washburn-

“ It was a true pleasure getting to know Ginny and her beautiful family members who would accompany her to visits. She has the most polite great grandchildren that I have ever met (must run in the family!) who sat patiently in the office visits. I am sorry to hear of her passing but happy that she is joining her loved ones on the other side. - Dr. Skemp-Dymond
