

Virginia Maher

June 19, 2009

Maher, Virginia (Johnson) age 90, of Mpls, died Monday, June 15, 2009. Virginia spent her life as a loyal and proud Minneapolis resident. Along with raising a family, Virginia was a clerk for the Mpls Public Schools, taking great pride in being the records clerk at her alma mater, Roosevelt High School. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bernard "Bernie" J. Maher; they held hands for 67 years of marriage. She was the hub of the family and gave unending, unquestioned, unconditional love and support to her loved ones. That, along with her easy, lilting laugh, will be greatly missed by her daughters, Lynne M. (Perry) Forster and Laurel M. Anderson; grandchildren, Sean (Molly Schirmer) Forster, Stacy (Colin Benedict) Forster, Jonas Anderson; great-grandchildren, Taylor Forster and Owen Benedict; sister, Arlene Pettersen; sisters- in-law, cousins, nieces and nephews. Memorials preferred to R.P. Research at Foundation Fighting Blindness Inc., PO Box 17279, Baltimore, MD 21203- 7279. Private interment. Visitation Saturday, June 20, 11 AM-1 PM at: Washburn-McReavy Nokomis Park Chapel 612-721-1651 1838 E. Minnehaha Pkwy, Mpls.
