“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving yearsbecause you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. Ruth Ann Mahaffey (author) © Copyright 1998-2009 <http://www.ruthann1.com>

“ Your gentle face and patient smile With sadness we recall, You had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all. The voice is mute and stilled the heart that loved us well and true, trial to part from one so good as you. You are not forgotten loved one Nor will you ever be, As long as life and memory last We will remember thee. We miss you now, our hearts are sore, As time goes by we miss you more. Your loving smile, your gentle face, no one can fill your empty place.

“ Mother, how could it be this long that you have been gone from us? Five years -- it doesn't seem possible. I miss you everyday. I miss the sound of your voice and your beautiful smile. I miss seeing you waving to me from your back door as I'd leave the house. There are so many things I'd like to talk to you about. Things I'd like to ask for your advice. I would just once like to be able to call you and hear your voice on the other end of the phone line. But it isn't to be. I thank you for all the good things you did in your life -- for all the good things you did for me. I'm so glad that I told you while you were alive and could hear my voice say how much I loved you and how grateful I felt to have you in my life. Missing you never goes away. I'll always miss you. The third anniversary...

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when day is done.

I'd like to leave an echo of whispering softly down the ways.

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun.

Of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done.

“ You'll never forget your Mother's face, the sound of her voice, the gentleness of her touch... she let you know you were loved.

You'll never forget the stories she told, the traditions she handed down...she let you know who you are.

You'll never forget the lessons she taught, the things she stood for...they are her gifts and your legacy.

You'll never forget and you'll always know, that you honor her everyday...in how you live and who you are.

Whatever we were to each other, we still are. Call me by my old familiar name.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it always was. There is absolute unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight?

I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.

All is well. Nothing is past. Nothing has been lost.

One brief moment and all will be as it was before--only better. Infinitely happier. We will be one, together forever.

*Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.*

*Remember me when no more day by day
you tell me of the future you planned:
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.*

*Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve:
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts I once had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than you should remember and be sad.*

“ *When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've ever stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.*

*Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day.
But in the summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay,
And come in the shade of the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west.
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.*

To the sorrowful

But to the happy

I cannot speak
But I can listen
I cannot be seen
but I can be heard
So as you stand

Gazing at a beautiful sea-

As you look in awe
at a mighty forest
and it's grand majesty-
remember me
Remember me in your heart and your thoughts, and your memories

“ To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You musn't tie yourself to me with tears, be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I travelled on alone. So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for awhile that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on, so if you need me, call and I will come. Tho you can't see or touch me, I'll be near, and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all of my love around you soft and clear. And then when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home"

“ Grandma- I had to put in another entry because my first one didnt feel complete. You've been gone only for a few short weeks but it seems like forever. I want you to know that you are missed by everyone. Adam and I think about you often and miss you terribly. We will miss you not being here to share our happiness, but we know that you are in a happy place too, and hope that one day we can share with you. We miss you Grandma and love you so much. XOXOXOXOXOXOXOXO

“ I met Ginia when I was back in elementary school through Alissa.
She is a great lady and I always loved being able to go and see her.
She will be missed by many people.

*I will be thinking of you,
Lesley*

“ I was saddened to hear of Virginia's death. Nothing beautiful in the world is ever really lost...Viginia will always live on in our memories. May you find peace in the love that surrounds you and in those memories. I wish I could be there to celebrate Virginia's life with you. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
