

Virginia Bess Sall

October 24, 1940 - February 22, 2024

Sall, Virginia Raymond "Ginny," October 24, 1940 - February 22, 2024, was born in St. Paul and graduated from Summit School in 1958. Ginny received her undergraduate degree in elementary education from Macalester College in 1962. Ginny met the love of her life, Andrew Sall, through her brother, John Raymond, Andy's First Bank co-worker. Andy and Ginny married in 1960. Prior to starting her family, Ginny worked as an elementary school teacher for several years in Independent School District #621.

Throughout her life, Ginny engaged in many philanthropic causes. She was a long-time member of Rotary, P.E.O. International, Twin Cities Opera Guild, and the Woman's Club of Minneapolis. During their retirement, Ginny and Andy enjoyed spending time with their grandchildren and traveling the world. They spent their winters in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico where they made many friends and supported the local community through numerous charities.

In addition to her charity work, Ginny enjoyed the company of her friends, participating in neighborhood bridge and investment groups. She also was an active real estate agent for 13 years.

Ginny and Andy were members of North Heights Lutheran Church. Ginny is survived by her four children; Andrew G. Sall III (Millie), Elisabeth (Billy) Dyer, John Sall, Sara (Michael) Keilen, and eight grandchildren to whom she was known as "Mimi." Funeral service Friday, March 1, 2024, at 10:30 AM at North Heights Lutheran Church, 2701 Rice Street Roseville, MN. Visitation begins at 9:30 AM. Reception to follow. Interment at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
