“ Viv,
We were childhood friends. I remember roller skating at St Agatha's gym and at the Sears YMCA. Yes years of unforgotten memories by some but not me. Those were the days. We had so much when we were teenagers. We were so happy then but life happens. We grew up. We went our separate ways but we're always connected via the people grew up with together. Greg has been the connection to you and myself and Annie has been connected with me through my sister in law in the military. I say this because we're never disconnected just displaced. May you rest well my beautiful friend until we meet again.

“ I'll never forget the grace and warmth I felt the few times I was in her presence. She was beautiful the kind of beauty that shows through in the family she raised. Her children, her legacy, speak volumes about the love and strength she carried. Sending love and comfort to everyone who knew and loved her. May her memory be a blessing, always.
