“ Viv was the oldest in our family of 14 children. She was the best in all of us--caring, thoughtful, she worked hard, could be calm and cool, yet also demanded the best at times. She was tender hearted, but also very emotionally strong when she needed to be. Even though 19 years separate her from the youngest in our family, she was able to relate to all of us--she took care of us growing up, we stayed over at her house when we were old enough, we enjoyed her company during family gatherings and camped with her in her most recent years. Her children Sarah, George and Rose--are like brothers and sisters to us as we grew up with them too. There is comfort that she will be with brother Rick and our Mom and Dad, even though we are extremely sad to lose Viv and will miss her dearly.
