“ Mom, sorry it has taken me this long to actually get on here!! It has been and still is very hard to accept that you are no longer here to give me advice or a hug!! When you left this earth I lost not just my Mom, but my best friend, confidant, and hero all at once!! I felt a little embarrassed that you wanted the poems read at your funeral, but also very happy that they meant that much to you!! So here is another one for you and Dad.....If I could send you a letter to Heaven up above I would cover it in kisses and fill it up with love. I would wrap my arms around it and give it a big squeeze so you could have a hug from me anytime you please. I would add a lot of memories of the good times we had and seal it with my tears because I miss you both so bad! R.I.P. Enjoy your reunion with Dad!!! Love you and miss you soooo much! Your baby girl, Dawn P.s. Your hunny bunny loves and misses you lots too!! He has no one's beautiful hair to mess up!!

“ I remember the day I meet Vivian. I had lost my own grandparents many years prior and she always made me feel special. Even though I was no longer officially part of the family we kept in touch. And I always called her Grandma Ross. Love you and miss you.

“ Growing up you look up to your elderly family and vivian and gus were a very kind great aunt and uncle to me. Gus would talk to my grandpa Ernest for hours on the phone!! Viv was just the sweetest lady ever and great humor!! Difficult time for all the Gibson/Ross family at this time and we will always cherish the love our family has always had together.

“ I remember Aunt Viv and Uncle Gus visiting and all us "kids" playing. And the fun times together at the farm in Big Lake running around in the cornfields. My Dad has fun stories of when they were all youngsters, hitching up the horse for a paper route and bringing along the salt shaker just incase they could grab green apples off a tree! I'm thankful to have these memories and have heard the history of those days. Aunt Viv will be missed by all who knew her. Please know your family is in my thoughts, my prayers and in my heart.
