“ Vonda, you were magnificent! I am late to your final party but I know that there is somewhere in the Spirit World where you are holding court. Thank you for all of the years you were in Chicago, always helping the native community. I will miss my friend for a while. I am sure Stanley missed you and probably yanked hard to have you by his side. I am sorry that I didn't get to see how you were doing in Minneapolis, but I can already tell that you had a lot of friends, family and love!

“ Grandma Vonda.....you will never be forgotten.....the stories, that can go on & on, the cars you destroyed, the first pair of moccasins for my girls.....I love you, so much.
One more Mt. Dew & two dove bars and you'll make that next Pow-Wow.

Kiss Stan

“ I will miss her, she had a smile and crazy stories that you knew were probably true. She was that one in a million if you were lucky, you got to know. Prayers for the family who loved her.

“ Vonda Gluck...what can I say! She was a spitfire woman who knew what she wanted. She was witty, sassy, loved to laugh and have fun. She was independent, strong, and wise. I will miss her stories and her supportive voice. Life got sweeter when Vonda walked into my life. I know Heaven is happy to welcome her as she celebrates with her loved ones who have passed before her. Vonda, my heart sank when I knew you left this world and I look forward to seeing you in Heaven.

I met Vonda at Ebenezer towers I know this is late, but I wondered what had happened to her. She was the funniest, raunchy, caring, considerate person I've known. Loved to laugh and the stories she would tell is unbelievable. I know her spirit is free and she is happy.

Sorry this is so late but it has been only recently that I have been searching for long lost acquaintances. Vonda was one of the most interesting characters I had ever met. We briefly met at a party and many years later while driving taxi I picked up her and her husband (an orthodox rabbi; how's that for a combination!) at the airport. He proceeded to take a French deck of playing cards out of his pocket to show me, which I found to be very un-rabbi-ish, but I was not surprised after some of the stories she told me (one of which involved a class trip, getting the bus driver drunk who then rolled the bus). I don't know if it was factual but it did not surprise me given her rollicking personality. Sorry she's gone.
