“ Wally was a man who always had an easy smile. I don't think that I ever saw him not laughing and having a good time with all those he was around. Even though I lost touch for a few years, my mom and dad would keep me up to date on Wally and his family. He was truly blessed and blessed so many. He will be missed for now - looking forward to seeing him again one day in the place that I know he longed to be!
