

Wallace A I Johnson

November 20, 2016

Johnson, Wallace A. I. age 90, of Minneapolis, MN. Died peacefully on Sunday, 11/20/2016 at Saint Therese of New Hope. Born 3/19/1926 to Hilbert and Pearl Johnson. Preceded in death by parents, wife Janet Olive (Lindeman), brother Willis, sisters Lenora Morris and Audrey Foster and grandchild Matthew. He is survived by brother Floyd (Joan) Johnson; children Connie (Wayne) Boline, Bruce Johnson, Micheal (Sandy) Johnson; grandchildren Jennifer Rossman, Daniel (Angela) Boline, Allen Johnson, Amanda (Troy) Hansen, Heather (Kyle) Sampson, Zachary Johnson; great-grandchildren Eli and Cole Rossman, Jayden, Logan and Rhett Hansen, and many nieces and nephews. Enlisting in the Navy at age 17, he served as an Electrician's Mate 3rd Class on the Battleship U.S.S. Idaho in World War II. He then worked as an appliance repairman for Westinghouse and in building maintenance for several Twin Cities Federal Buildings. When Wally reminisced about surviving World War II and repeated smooth career transitions, he said "Just lucky, I guess." He loved his family and delighted in family gatherings and travel. His favorite vacation was the train ride to Florida with Grandson Allen. He was very social and made friends easily. A devoted husband, father and friend, he will be deeply missed. Special thanks to the Minneapolis VA Medical Center, St. Therese of New Hope and the North Memorial Hospice. Funeral service at the Brookdale Covenant Church, 5139 Brooklyn Blvd, Brooklyn Center on Monday, 11/28/2016 at 11:00 am. Visitation one hour prior at 10:00 am. Interment at Washburn-McReavy Crystal Lake

Cemetery will follow the service. Luncheon will be held at the Brookdale Covenant Church, 5139 Brooklyn Blvd, Brooklyn Center, following the interment. If desired, memorials may be sent to the St. Therese Foundation or the North Memorial Hospice. Washburn-McReavy.com Crystal Lake Chapel
