

Walter Robilliard

December 2, 2007

Robilliard, Walter H. Sr. Age 86, died peacefully at his home in Crystal on November 28, 2007. Preceded in death by wife, Caroline. Survived by son, Walt Jr. (Connie); daughter, BonniLee; and grandson, Paul (Deborah); brother, William; also cousins, nieces and nephews. Walter's professional life centered in corporate finance. His career began with a war time appointment with the IRS auditing major corporations. He became a successful executive with M & O Paper Company, Boise Cascade, and McQuay. He served on several corporate boards and consulted internationally. He was a coach with the Skippy Little League team, a member of the Edina Park Board, and church treasurer. Walter spent 30 years as a leading breeder of champion Arabian horses at his farm in Buffalo, MN. His stallions and their offspring won countless local, regional and national awards. In his later years Walter was an avid fan of the Minnesota Gophers, deeply concerned about his country, always an encouragement to family and friends, and secure in his eternal relationship with God. Funeral service Tuesday 11 AM at the Washburn-McReavy Hillside Chapel. Interment Sunset Cemetery. Visitation Monday 5-8 PM and 1 hour prior to service at: Washburn-McReavy Hillside Chapel 612-781-1999 2610 19th Ave. N.E.
