

Warren Redman

April 5, 2006

Redman, Warren H. of Eden Prairie, MN, passed away on March 29 in Minneapolis, Minn., surrounded by his daughter and grand-children, one month shy of his 85th birthday. He was a much beloved father, grandfather, son and brother, and he greatly loved his dear wife, Bonnie and son, Mark, who passed before him. He was devoted to his parents Alma and George Redman. Warren grew up in Monroe, Wis. and graduated from the University of Wisconsin at Madison. He served in Patton's Third Army from 1943-1946 and played football briefly for an Army team in Europe after the war. Warren enjoyed a 36-year career with Procter and Gamble, working in Indianapolis, Minneapolis, Detroit and Boston. He loved to sing and dance and play poker. He loved the Red Sox, football, Puccini and cheese. He was a loyal friend and son, a loving man who always, always did his duty for his family. He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Pamela and Robert Bibeault of Maple Grove, Minn.; grandchildren, Caroline, Zachary and Jessalyn Bibeault; future grandson-in-law, Wasim Ahmad of Binghamton, N.Y.; sister and brother-in-law, Lois and Dan Garrett of Pompano Beach, Fla; and four nieces and nephews. He will be laid to rest in Sudbury, Mass. Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
