

Warren Woodrich

March 9, 2005

Woodrich Warren Brown Jr. "Woody", age 56, of Hopkins, passed away March 7, 2005. Survived by his loving wife, Vickie; twin sons, James and John; his mother, Phyllis; his sister, Paisley (Ken) Pettine; his brother, Charles (Louise). Warren was a graduate of West High School, Mpls. In his early years, he was an accomplished electric bass guitar player. He played with The Chancellors, The Malibu's and was an original member of White Lightning. Later, his career focused on business management. He was VP of Hopkins Ready Mix and then moved to administer several medical clinics. He had a long history of community involvement and leadership. He was Executive Director of Project Concern. He was a past president of Hopkins Raspberry Festival, the Hopkins Area Jaycees, and the Kiwanis Club of Edina. He was State Secretary of the MN Jaycees. He was a member on the following commissions for the City of Hopkins: Zoning & Planning, Human Rights and Charter. Memorial service 1 PM Saturday, with visitation one hour before at: Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson Chapel 1400 Mainstreet, Hopkins 952-938-9020