

Wayne William Ahlgrim

March 24, 1926 - February 10, 2023

Ahlgrim, Wayne

age 96 of Plymouth, passed away peacefully at Covenant Living of Golden Valley on February 10, 2023. Preceded in death by his wife of 64 years, Betty; brother, Clarence; daughter, Susan Donnelley; and 1 grandson. Survived by daughter, Carol (Edward) Gutow; sons, Randall and Daniel (Heidi); 5 grandchildren; and 2 great-grandchildren.

Wayne was born in Minneapolis, grew up in Brainerd, and then returned to Minneapolis where he met his beloved wife, Betty. They married in 1945 and eventually settled in the Lind-Bohanon neighborhood, where they resided for 50 years. For most of those years, Wayne worked for the McKesson Corporation, retiring in 1988. Throughout his life, he was actively involved with several area churches, putting into practice the Christian faith that anchored his soul. He also enjoyed following sports, especially the Brainerd High School Warriors and the University of Minnesota Golden Gophers. He was blessed with health and strength for nearly his entire lifetime. A special thank you to the staff at Covenant Living, Methodist Hospital, Park Nicollet Methodist Hospital Hospice, and Cornerstone Assisted Living for the care provided to Wayne during his final year of life.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, March 4, 2023, at Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel (5000 W. 50th St., Edina) at 11:00 a.m. with visitation one hour prior. Memorials preferred. Interment Crystal Lake Cemetery.

“ My thoughts are with all of you at the loss of your dad/grandpa. It is a tough time for all of you. Our families, even tho related, didn't spend a lot time to get to know each other. In reading your dad's accomplishments, you should all be so proud of him.

My sympathy & prayers go out to all of you.
