“ Kip and I worked together at Riverside in 1973 and we both went to Sherco in 1975. We both got on maintenance the same year, he as a rigger I as a welder. We had some good times together. Even went to Canada fishing couple of times. My condolences to Kips family. FAIR WINDS AND FOLLOWING SEAS KIPPER. RIP

“ Kip & I both were part of the original manning of Sherco 1&2, in 1975. Kip was on operations & I was in the yard. We both went to maintenance as apprentice Riggers. We became Journeymen Riggers. We went through alot together, we both lived in Elk River & our kids went to school together. We had alot of fun together until the early 80's, when we went separate ways. Kip was always a great trusted Friend. It saddens me to think Kipper is no longer with us. My condolences to Kips Family. RIP Kipper
