“ I only recently got to meet and know Wendall. I experienced such a kindness and genuine way from him. Just a couple of weeks ago, my kids and I had a good conversation with Wendall at Cafe Donuts in Maple Grove as he compassionately interacted with my kids and shared a bit of his story with me. Wendall was a caring servant and faithful encouragement to the community of Church of The Open Door in Maple Grove as well. He will be deeply missed!

“ Wendall graced the GP at Open Door each Sunday morning. He had the strongest hand shake and the biggest smile. He is going to be missed by the regulars who shared a table with him and stopped in to see him at the Donut Shop. The times we chatted were special...going to miss him!

“ Wendall was the biggest reason my kids and I did Friday donuts every other week where we did. Always made us smile and even my 8-year old said that his passing was very sad and that he will be truly missed. We all should strive to live our life like we saw in Wendall.
